

Dear Parents and Carers

I got to experience my first music assembly this morning. Thank you to the parents who joined us, it really does make it special. I was incredibly impressed with the confidence the children showed; to perform like that in front of their peers and their community is lovely to see. I have been learning the ukulele myself and know that I couldn't perform to that standard and with that much aplomb!

Have a lovely weekend.

Christmas Lunches

A reminder that we have Christmas lunches next week. On Tuesday, we have nursery, reception, years 1 and 2 and on Thursday, it is the turn of Years 3 to 6 for their Christmas lunch.

Administrator role reminder

We have recently advertised for an administrator to join our office team. If you think it could be of interest, please see the advert here.

Christmas activities at St Boniface

Please see two flyers attached for events at St Boniface: one is for a nursery rhyme nativity on Sunday and the other is an overview of the events being held over the Christmas period.

Lest we forget...

Over the past few weeks, we have been thinking about the theme of remembrance; the children have produced some lovely work which you can see in the display in our foyer and in the adjacent photo.

I was really impressed with the thoughtfulness the children showed at this key time of the year.

Car Parking

I am receiving numerous complaints of inconsiderate parking from our neighbours – driveways and entrances being blocked and other rude behaviour.

I know the vast majority of our parents and carers are very considerate but unfortunately our reputation is being harmed by a minority.
